May Not Begin in Far East For Another Month.

Belief That Japan Has Forwarded Russian Reply to England.

Viceroy Notifies Emperor of China That War is Imminent--Russian Marines March to Seoul --Kaiser And Czar in Pact--The Day's News From the Orient.

London, Jan. 7.—(Bulletin)—Private information of authoritative character has been received from an official connected with the Nagasaki cable station to the effect that while war in the far east is considered certain it is unlikely that hostilities will begin for another month. Russia and Japan are believed to be finessing for time in order to perfect their armament.

RUSSIA'S REPLY.

London, Jan. 7.—(Bulletin)—There is a well established belief in diplomatic circles this morning that Japan has received Russia's reply to her demands and that this reply has been forwarded to Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister, who has in turn handed it to the British foreign office. It is thought that Japan is now waiting for British advice before assuming her final attitude. This latter belief is strengthened by the calling of the cabinet together. It is probable that the reply will be the subject of discussion and that when a decision has been arrived at Japan will make an announcement defining her position. Until that decision is reached, it is not generally thought that anything of great importance will transpire.

EMPEROR NOTIFIED.

Peking, Jan. 7.—(Bulletin)—Viceroy Wei of Nanking province, has advised the throne that war between Russia and Japan is most imminent. As a result the government offices are in busiest telegraphic communication with the provincial viceroys. The tenor of these communications cannot be obtained as a secret code is used.

MR. GORMAN ASKS FOR MORE LIGHT

On the Panama Question--Presents Resolution to the Senate for Information That May Probe the Deal to The Fullest Extent.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Notwithstanding the President's own defense of his Panama policy in his message and a supplementary defense of that policy undertaken by the President's next friend in the Senate, Henry Cabot Lodge, the Democratic senators see no reason to change their opinion that the President has exceeded his powers and disregarded the law in his course in the affair, and mean to continue their opposition to the canal treaty, as well as their efforts to bring out all the facts in possession of the administration relative to the isthmian revolution.

This purpose was declared by several men of the Democratic side of the Senate in talks with newspapermen and was shown by the action of Senator Gorman in presenting a resolution calling on the President for detailed information as to the course of this Government in relation to all previous outbreaks on the isthmus of Panama, the landing of American marines for the preservation of order there, the correspondence of our officials with the authorities of New Granada and Colombia in connection with these affairs and all other documents relating to the subject.

"We want more light," was Senator Gorman's comment on the situation relative to the treaty and the administration's connection with the Panama revolution. His resolution, if answered in good faith by the administration, will furnish a most interesting commentary on the President's Panama message, as the correspondence and facts it calls for will show, in the minutest detail, the interpretation put by different administrations on our duties and rights on the isthmus under the terms of the treaty of 1846, and the attitude various officials of the different administrations assumed toward New Granada and Colombia.

By thus going to the very bottom of the subject, the right light will be got on it and the lack of fairness and quibbling of the present administration will be made manifest to the country. The Gorman resolution will also have the effect of keeping the subject alive for a long time to come, should other material be lacking, and furnish ammunition for the Democrats for debate in open Senate, alternating with the discussions of the Panama treaty behind closed doors in executive session.

It is thus evident the ratification of the treaty will not be achieved for a long time to come and before that result is reached every phase of the administration's conduct in its recent dealings with Colombia and Panama will be brought under critical scrutiny and made familiar to the country.

ALLEN REPORTS.

Washington, Jan. 7.—A cablegram to the state department from Minister Allen in Korea, says that Russian marines who were refused transportation on the Japanese controlled railway, have marched overland to Seoul. The ostensible purpose of their visit is to protect Russian lives and property in Seoul, alleged to be endangered by disturbances there.

MORE TRANSPORTS.

San Francisco, Jan. 7.—More transports are being fitted out for service. Five large army transports are now being prepared for immediate service. In round numbers at least 7,000 men with equipment, could be carried by the transports or a third of an army corps. It is believed by army and navy men that the transports are soon to sail for the orient.

CLASH IMMINENT.

London, Jan. 7.—The fear that a clash between Russia and Japan is imminent continues in English diplomatic circles, and was this morning mirrored in the securities markets by a sharp break in consols. The lowest figures since 1896 were reached. Consols for money sold at $6 13 16, a decline of one point and account at $7, a loss of 1 1-16 from last night.

London, Jan. 7.—The Daily Mail's Shimoneski and Kioochan dispatches state that the Russians are obtaining coal from the Germans, who are also furnishing them with gunners.

This is the first intimation that Germany had been giving direct aid to Russia, and as is stated below, it is believed that the Czar and Emperor Wilhelm have come to terms, the Emperor having named his price.

Viceroy Alexieff's agents are offering large sums to induce American and British gunners to desert and re-enlist at Port Arthur.

Germans are exceedingly active in Shantung, where thousands of bronze images of Kaiser Wilhelm as the War God, with sword raised to strike, are being distributed.

Prince Adelbert is reported as predicting presumably as the price of German good will that the whole province of Shantung will become German territory.

It is not believed here that Russia's heavy bribes to American gunners will induce any of them to desert the American ships in Asiatic waters. The pride that every American jackie, especially the sharpshooters, take in belonging to an American ship is proverbial, and it is remembered that when China offered large sums for American gunners that nation was compelled to fall back on the Austrians, Germans and French. A first-class American seaman would not remain a week aboard any Russian warship.

The Daily Mail dispatches from Tokyo report that the American Minister at Seoul has notified the Korean Government of his intention to bring guards ashore to protect the United States Legation and that the Foreign Minister has refused his consent, asserting that Korea is prepared to furnish the necessary protection. Nevertheless American marines were promptly disembarked, 150 now being at Chemulpo, 30, with eight officers, having entered Seoul on Tuesday. The Korean Government has not protested.

The American and Japanese Ministers had met the day before and discussed the question. A British detachment is expected to follow the Americans to guard the British Legation.

The Express' correspondent at Port Said reports that the Russian squadron has received orders to follow the two new cruisers recently purchased by Japan, which are ready to leave Genoa. The cruisers will shadow the Japanese and will be ready to attack them in the event of a declaration of war.

If war breaks out before the Japanese vessels sail from Genoa the Japanese will have to remain at Genoa or run the gauntlet of the Russians.

A Russian legion guard of 30 has been landed at Chemulpo, but the Japanese railway has refused to transport it to Seoul.

It is reported preparations have been made for the Emperor of Korea to find an asylum at the French legation in the event of serious trouble. It is expected that France and Germany will send marines here to guard their legation.

A dispatch to Reuter's Telegram Company from Tokyo says: "All the Russian warships recently at Vladivostok are reported to have sailed for Port Arthur."

A cabinet meeting has been unexpectedly called for this week, though Premier Balfour and other Ministers had arranged for a fortnight's absence from London.

Shot Motorman.

Salt Lake, Utah, Jan. 7.—This morning highwaymen held up a street car at Thirteenth street and shot the motorman, John Gleason dead and fatally wounded the conductor. Ten dollars was secured from the conductor. The murderers have not been apprehended.

Coffee is a very strong antiseptic; there are many diseases the microbes of which are destroyed by it.

SULLY IS TO TRY THE COFFEE GAME

New York, Jan. 7.—Daniel J. Sully has been admitted to membership of the New York coffee exchange. It is said that he paid $7000, the highest price on record, for the seat. Mr. Sully is not the first of the successful cotton bulls to try a hand in the coffee market.

Brown of New Orleans, who managed the successful cotton corner that ended last September, has been for some time a member of the coffee exchange.

Six months ago it was said that when Brown's cotton movement was over coffee would become active,

B. & O. TRAIN

SIDEWIPES FREIGHT LOADED WITH LAMPBLACK.

Passengers Soon Looked Like Ethiopians—Coroner Inquires Into the Disaster of Dec. 23.

Cumberland, Md., Jan. 7.—The B. & O. Duquesne limited express, east bound, the same train wrecked at Laurel Run on December 23, costing 55 lives, "sidewiped" a freight early this morning. The engine demolished a freight car loaded with lampblack. The powdered substance filled the air and the passengers and train crew were soon as black as Ethiopians. No one was hurt.

Connellsville, Pa., Jan. 7.—The coroner's jury inquiring into the wreck of the Duquesne limited on the B. & O. railroad, at Laurel Run, on the night of December 23, in which 65 persons were killed and a score injured, was convened in Connellsville yesterday. The inquest was conducted by Coroner A. F. Hagan. Attorney D. W. McDonald represented the B. & O. railroad company.

A number of railway employees were examined and testified that the wreck was caused by timbers dropped from a car on which the standards were broken.

CORONER

INVESTIGATES WRECK ON THE ROCK ISLAND.

Believed That Dr. Will Wallace Was to Have Taken This Route Home From Newark.

Topeka, Kas., Jan. 7.—A coroner's jury convened this morning to begin an official inquiry into the Rock Island wreck at Willard, Kansas, which cost seventeen lives. The jury met in the office of an influential establishment where ten of the dead lay.

Some twenty witnesses were subpoenaed including Elmer Benjamin of the ill-fated train on whom the blame is cast by his superior officers. Conductor Naylor of the passenger train, the crew of the stock train, dispatchers and telegraph operators and several passengers. Filing of a criminal charge may follow the jury's verdict.

Owing to absence of C. E. Benjamin the engineer, the jury transacted only preliminary business this morning.

RELATIVES ANXIOUS.

Lima, O., Jan. 7.—Relatives here believe that Mrs. E. M. Fink and daughter, wife of the collector of customs at El Paso, Texas, perished in the Rock Island wreck in Kansas and are among the unidentified dead. They were en route home after a visit here and wrote from Chicago that they would take the ill-fated train.

DR. WILL WALLACE

The family of Mr. George Wallace of North Fifth street, were very much worried when news came to Newark of the wreck of the Rock Island train at Willard, Kansas. They feared that Mr. Wallace's son, Dr. William Wallace, whose home is in California, was on the train en route home after a visit with relatives in Newark.

He is known to have expected to take this route, and the family will be greatly relieved to know that Dr. Wallace's name is not in the list of dead or injured.

GOV. NASH

SIGNS BILL INCREASING SALARY OF LIEUT. GOVERNOR

And Creating the New Position of Secretary to the Governor—Will Sign Staff Bill Later.

Columbus, O., Jan. 7.—Governor Nash has affixed his signature to two bills making them laws, the first time this privilege has been extended an Ohio governor since the regime of St. Clair.

The first was the bill increasing the salary of the lieutenant governor to $1500, the second creating the new position of secretary to the governor.

Immediately the bills were laws and the governor forthwith transmitted them to the secretary of state.

"I shall probably make the last official act of my term the signing of the bill regulating the governor's staff," said Governor Nash. "Were I to sign it now it would simply mean legislating out of office my own staff."

DOWIE

Doing a Little Investigating Before Sailing to Australia--To Establish More Zion Cities.

San Antonio, Tex., Jan. 7.—John Alexander Dowie and his companions spent the night on the Texas coast.

Before leaving Dowie authorized this statement: "I have not lost heart in consequence of recent affairs in Zion, which is stronger financially than ever. I am on my way to Australia and will sail on the Sonoma, from San Francisco, January 21. We intend to establish a number of Zion cities, and one of them in the south, but just where I cannot say at this time. I am merely investigating."

At the San Antonio and Arkansas Pass railway headquarters it is stated that Dowie may be induced to establish an "Eternal City" near Brownsville, Tex., and that there is no intention to purchase Matagorda Island, as it is a barren, sandy tract.

WITNESSES

Tell Story of Fire To Coroner Traeger at Chicago

Bolted and Barred Were Score of Exits at the Theatre

Two Hundred People are Summoned to Give Their Testimony Placing Blame for the Disaster--Theatre Employes Were Not Trained To Fight a Fire.

Chicago, Jan. 7.—In the large city council chamber, Coroner Traeger this morning began the inquisition which is to fasten the blame for the Iroquois theatre disaster upon the culpable person. Two hundred witnesses have been summoned. Twenty of the most important witnesses are in the custody of the police. At 3 o'clock this morning Wm. Maher and Geo. Sagel, workmen, who are said to have nailed the ventilators above the stage, were taken into custody by the police.

By their own evidence, given before Monroe Fulkerson, who is conducting the fire department investigation into the Iroquois theatre horror, the proprietors of the theatre showed that a worse condition of affairs existed than had heretofore been thought possible.

Will J. Davis, Harry J. Powers and Thomas J. Noonan, active managers of the Iroquois theatre, were examined. All of them pleaded ignorance of any precautions taken to prevent loss of life by fire at their theatre. They admitted failure to instruct employes in fighting fires, and failure even to provide suitable appliances for use against flames. Their statements were corroborated by the testimony of 20 employes of the theatre, none of whom had ever been told his duty in case of fire.

Noonan, who is working manager of the theatre, under direction of Davis and Powers, admitted that many of the theatre exits were locked and bolted.

The greatest loss of life from the fire was in the first and second balconies, where hundreds of people were suffocated through inability to get out or were trampled to death while trying to do so. Had these three exits in each balcony been available, according to Inspector Fulkerson, the loss of life must have been greatly diminished.

The theatre seated 1806, and additional to these thirty-six had been admitted after all seats were sold, making a total of 1,842 people in the theatre of whom 591 were killed.

THREE MEN KILLED AND DOZEN INJURED.

Rear End Collision Thursday Morning on the "L" Road in New York--Wreck Took Fire and Panic Followed Among Passengers.

New York, Jan. 7.—Three men were killed and several people were injured in a rear end collision on the King's County Elevated at Williams and Pittsford avenue this morning. The wreck caught fire and the cars were burned. A panic followed and the current was turned off from the third rail to prevent a further loss of life.

THE DEAD.

Geo. Zulick, car coupler, B. R. T. Jos. O'Brien, switchman, B. R. T. E. H. Ferguson, freed foreman, B. R. T.

A loaded train drawn by an engine was waiting at a block signal to cross when a train with another car crashed into it. So far as can be learned the motorman did not see the danger signal. When the crash came the cars were thrown from the track and a blaze started from the crumpling of the wires.

A panic followed and a fire alarm

Among the witnesses examined today was Mrs. Elvira D. Pinedo, school teacher, who stood near the boxes with many others. Persons were standing around the entire lower floor (three deep). She saw the first sparks above the stage. The entire audience remained seated for several minutes. The witness put on her rubbers and walked to the exit. An usher stood at the exit and refused to unlock it. A man in the audience tore the draperies aside. A shock like an explosion blew open the doors and those at the exit fell into the alley. Before her escape the canvas curtain was lowered. The draught behind it blew it over the orchestra in a sheet of flame. She heard no shrieks. The audience kept an awful silence.

An adjournment till 2 p. m. was taken at noon today.

All of the witnesses who were called this morning testified either that they ran against locked doors or doors concealed by curtains.

ACROSS THE STREET.

THE NEWS OF OHIO.

FIRE AT GRANVILLE.

Granville, O., Jan. 7.—What might have proved a very disastrous fire broke out in one of the rooms of the Conservatory of Music of Denison university, and was only prevented from destroying the building by its timely discovery. Prof. Arthur Judson, musical instructor of Denison, had occasion to go to one of the rooms on the second floor. When he opened the door he found the room full of smoke and a fire in the flooring gaining rapid headway. The professor with rare presence of mind fought the flames and after hard work succeeded in extinguishing the fire, but not until a large hole had been burned in the flooring. The fire originated from a small oil lamp that had set fire to a book, and which was communicated to the carpet. Prof. Judson is entitled to great credit for the part he took in extinguishing the fire, for had it not been discovered by him the probability is that the entire building would have been destroyed.

MUST NOT SMOKE.

Delaware, O., Jan. 7.—Quite a sensation was sprung by Professor Duval, the dean of the faculty of Ohio Wesleyan university at the opening of the winter term.

As each boy attempted to sign up for his work, he was informed that he must first see the dean. At this interview he was informed that before he could enter the school he must sign a written pledge to abstain from the use of tobacco during the term.

Some signed, others refused, and still others wished to consider. Many of the boys are smoking their last cigars, and others are telegraphing home for instructions.
If the rule is enforced it is certain that Ohio Wesleyan baseball and football interests will suffer.

Many of the boys will seek other educational institutions.

SUES FOR INSURANCE.

Young Kinnane is a partner with his two uncles in the firm of Kinnane Bros. Co., one of the largest department stores in this city. He left here last week for college after having spent the holidays at his home here. At Baltimore it is believed that he is a victim of the Chicago theatre horror, as letters written to classmates stated that he would be in Chicago about that time. His relatives know nothing of his whereabouts, but they are not inclined to the belief that he has met with foul play.

Kinnane recently inherited $100,000 through the death of an uncle.

NOMINATION HELD UP.

Chillicothe, Jan. 7.—The nomination of Geo. W. C. Perry to be postmaster at this place, has been held up by the Senate Committee. Senator Foraker requested that action be postponed. ### TOOK A BATH ONCE.

Delaware, O., Jan. 7.—He neither sows nor spins yet the lilies of the field in all their glory yield not a fragrance like unto that of Alfred Montgomery, who has been taken in charge here by the police. He was badly frozen, his hands, feet and face being in a serious condition. Mr. Montgomery says that he has not done a stroke of work for 34 years, and that the last time his apoplectic form was refreshed in a bath, was something like 13 years ago. The police have not yet discovered whether this bath was taken by accident or design.

Jews are Anxious.
Berlin, Jan. 7.—Today is Russian Christmas and the Jews here are most anxious as to how the day will pass for their co-religionists in Russia, especially those in Kishinev. This anxiety is caused by the threats of re-laxations of the persecution of the Jews. The main hope of the Semites lies in Russian enroachment in the far East. Because of this it is thought the persecution will be held in check till a more favorable time. Should an uprising against the Jew start, there will doubtless be great bloodshed, inasmuch as the Jews have sworn to defend their homes by force till the last.

It is said that the widow of the late Max O'Reil will return to the stage. She was once well known in comic opera as Beatrice Frosham. She is now preparing in Paris for her re-appearance.

DEMOCRATIC CHART FOR PRESIDENTIAL YEAR.

(Pittsburg Post.)

The Democratic celebration in New York on Monday evening, apparently in honor of Mayor McClellan, had a larger scope and a more extended influence. It was the most important for many months, not only because of the prominence of the participants, but for the better reason that the principles declared by Olney and Hill give promise, if not the certainty, of Democratic unity and purpose to force the fighting on issues that appeal to common sense and patriotism, and will prepare and inspire the Democratic heart for the conflict.

"There are no unseemly strifes; there is no attempt to proscribe any Democrat who believes in the elementary and fundamental principles of Democratic faith," declared Governor Hill, with force and truth in describing the situation. He outlined the probable platform of the party in the National contest of this year, with keen discernment of the issues. We do not see how any Democrat can raise an objection. He thought the division and troubles on the money question, which the Republicans count for so much, are greatly exaggerated, and can be met by a simple declaration in favor of international bimetalism by agreement between the leading nations. This pushes to the front the realities of finance and puts aside the impossible dreams of enthusiasts. If further coinage legislation becomes necessary, no objection can be made. The Democrats have never abandoned the principle of bimetalism, nor has any other party save the party of Wall street.

While Governor Hill covered the field of domestic policies and needs, he characterized the administration program as to Panama and Colombia as a "cheap and transparent play to the galleries." So it is regarded by the American people in their cool and searching analysis as "a species of contemptible machination unworthy the head of a great nation," and prompted by a desire to startle and dazzle the people. There has been and is no opposition to the canal enterprise, only it must be achieved with honor and honesty, and not made a shuttlecock with greedy speculators of other nations.

The calm and thoughtful words of Attorney General Olney, who handled the Venezuelan affair in the Cleveland administration, in relation to foreign affairs and their honorable and prudent conduct will sink deep in the hearts of the American people. He had a right to speak in scathing words of the bullying and coercion of a weak republic by this great power. It was Great Britain and its ablest statesmen that Olney met and vanquished in forcing Venezuelan arbitration, and not a weak and feeble state like Colombia, with which Roosevelt plays the tyrant and dictator, to the eternal dishonor of the American people. That was the difference in our foreign policy under Cleveland and Olney compared with the braggadocio and grab of Roosevelt and Hay.

We cannot do better than repeat the strong and forceful words of Mr. Olney as to what the Democratic party will stand for in its foreign policy, muddled and mismanaged by Roosevelt.

"In the matter of foreign policy," said the Cleveland premier, "the Democratic party will stand for international morality and decent international conduct; for observance of treaties and obedience to international law; for respects for the rights of every nation, however small; for the refusal to take by stealth or robbery what we have no right to get except by consent of the owner; for continuing our traditional role as to the defender of the weaker states of this hemisphere, instead of becoming their spoiler; for minding our own business generally, without meddling with the internal affairs of foreign countries, and without making rumors and trivial events the pretext for military demonstrations in foreign ports."

That is it exactly. We would not have a better chart for Democratic policy. It is the reverse of the jargon of bluster and braggadocio that Roosevelt has made the law of the great Republic so far as he can.

Practically the entire session of the Senate Tuesday was devoted to a speech by Mr. Lodge on the Panama situation. The Massachusetts senator is now the chief cuckoo in the public life of the country, and what he said on the subject was only an echo of the President's message of the day before. However his effort is of interest because it denotes the necessity the administration supporters feel pressing upon them to obscure the issue in a haze of talk, since they cannot satisfactorily explain it to the country.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY,

Explains Congressman John W. Cassingham, is Certain to Come in November if the Republicans Nominate Roosevelt and the Democrats Act With Wisdom.

Coshocton, Ohio, Jan. 7.—Hon. John W. Cassingham, Congressman from this district, spent vacation week at his home in this city, and returned to Washington on Tuesday. During his stay here he was frequently called out by conversation with friends on the present political situation.

Mr. Cassingham displayed a keen interest in national affairs and at the same time showed his intimate knowledge of the political situation at Washington and the country generally. He said it was remarkable what a deep-seated political feeling had sprung up in New York, New England and the east generally. "All this is due to the distrust of Roosevelt," Mr. Cassingham explained, and the sentiment has spread out among all classes that should the President be the nominee of his party he will be overwhelming ly defeated at the polls. The situation is especially peculiar in the fact that while capital in the east so greatly distrusts Roosevelt, labor has no confidence in him.

Mr. Cassingham is firmly of the opinion that if the Democrats will act carefully and wisely in the nomination of a candidate and the adoption of a platform, victory for our party will be the inevitable result in November.

The Democratic Congressmen see evidences every day of the growing feeling of Roosevelt's weakness in Republican circles, and there doubtless will be strong undercurrent efforts made to defeat Roosevelt at the Republican National convention by nominating Hanna or some other man.

"Put up to date," said Mr. Cassingham, "the administration machine is powerful enough to force Roosevelt on the party and it is the Democratic hope he will be nominated, for this means Democratic victory."

OPPOSITION TO PANAMA TREATY

By Democrats is Not Opposition to Isthmian Canal

The Law Provides for Construction of the Nicaragua Canal if Negotiations With Colombia for the Panama Route Shall Have Failed.

Washington, Jan. 7.—The leaders of the Republican party in Congress are attempting to make the people of the country believe that the Democrats are opposed to the construction of the Isthmian canal, simply because they are criticizing the action of the present administration in its relation to the recent secession of Panama from the parent government of Colombia in their opposition of President Roosevelt's course at Panama the Democrats of the Senate are not opposing or antagonizing the construction of an Isthmian canal. The most earnest advocates of the waterway, who have proved their devotion to this great enterprise by years of effort, are among those who most earnestly condemn the course of the administration. The position taken by the Democratic Senators relates more to the governmental condition of the United States than to our relations with any foreign power or our interest in the construction of the canal. If no other law be passed or no treaty with either Colombia or Panama be ratified there will still be no retardation in the construction of an Isthmian canal unless the President of the United States refuses to execute the law already on the statute books, which provided both the authority for negotiation and the money for the construction of the Nicaragua Canal, the negotiations with Colombia having failed. To assume that the failure of a treaty with Panama means the failure of the canal project is to assume that the President of the United States will refuse to execute a law already on the statute books, which is as mandatory upon him as is any provision of the criminal code upon any citizen of the United States.

The position and contention of the Democrats in the Senate is simply this: That the President of the United States has no right to make war upon a foreign power, that being solely within the province of Congress; and that the President of the United States cannot refuse to execute a law duly enacted by Congress and approved by the President.

This is the whole matter in a nutshell. If, after a full and impartial investigation the Democrats find that this administration did have guilty foreknowledge of the secession of Panama, and did assist her and have hindered a friendly power from compelling the recalcitrant state to come back into the Colombian union, thus performing an act of war, the Democrats may vote to reject the treaty and demand that the President execute the law now on the statutes to build the Nicaragua Canal. They may also then vote to impeach the President when he refuses to execute the law. They are not against the canal per se and all the howlings of the Republican majority cannot make them occupy any such attitude.

HANNA BOOM

SEEMS TO BE SWEEPING OVER INDIANA.

A Republican Canvass Shows Hanna is a Favorite by Long Odds Over Roosevelt.

Indianapolis, Jan. 7.—Indiana Republicans who have been watching the growth of Hanna sentiment here and elsewhere throughout the country say that it will be impossible to prevent Hanna receiving votes in the National Convention, and that the number will be so large that it will be a surprise to the country. They say the sentiment that Hanna ought to enter the race is growing every day in Indiana.

A state official said today: "During the recent love feast, a canvass of the Republicans who were here was made and it was found that there were 10 for Hanna to only 1 who was for Roosevelt."

"This canvass was made at the instance of Chairman Goodrich himself, and it is now no secret among those close to Goodrich that, so far as he is concerned, he will advise against the nomination of Roosevelt. If Hanna continues to decline, Senator Fairbanks will be brought out by the Indiana machine."

Long before the poll ordered by Jim Goodrich at the Denison was completed, everyone present was convinced that Hanna was a favorite by long odds over Roosevelt. The cheer that greeted the mention of his name by Congressman Watson settled the matter as far as Goodrich was concerned. He was heard to say: "Hanna is unquestionably stronger than Roosevelt in Indiana."

SYNDICATE

Columbus, O., Jan. 7.—A $13,000,000 syndicate for the manufacture of brooms, chiefly by convict labor is the latest concern launched in the industrial and financial world.

The news that such a syndicate has been practically formed and is to be launched soon came out today at a conference between the Board of Public Service, City Solicitor Butler and Benjamin C. Graham, the latter representing the National Broom and Brush company which has the contract for the employment of the 200 or more prisoners at the workhouse, and utilizes their labor in the manufacture of brooms.

PERRY HEATH

Salt Lake City, Utah, Jan. 7.—Perry S. Heath arrived from Denver shortly after midnight. Asked concerning the reports that government agents have been trying to locate him in order to serve a subpoena to appear as a witness in connection with the postal scandals at Washington and New York, he said: "This is the first I knew that subpoenas had been issued for me. I am not trying to dodge service and can be caught in Salt Lake any time." A subpoena arrived here December 27. Since then the United States marshal and his subordinates have been making a hunt for Heath.

FOLLY

Is the Proposed Plan to Cross the Atlantic by Balloon, Says Aeronaut de la Vaux.

Paris, Jan. 7.—Count de la Vaux, the well known balloonist, made the following comments in connection with the announced intention of the Aero-Club Capazza, Prof. Berget, of the Sorbonne university, and M. Reclus, the well known geographer, to make an attempt to cross the Atlantic in a balloon:

"The project is wonderful, but putting it into execution at this moment is folly. Theoretically, a balloon can remain a week in the air, but it is far from theory to practice. The longest time I have remained in the air in all my ascensions was 41 hours. In order to make the attempt properly the expedition should work progressively until it arrived at a stage when it can safely act upon the ocean, as on the Atlantic the least imperfection will result in a catastrophe. I have seen it announced that the object of the voyage is to study trade winds, but how can the balloon, proceeding rapidly, enable a study of this kind?"

A careful examination of trees that are struck by lightning shows that over half of them are poplars. From this fact scientists conclude that the poplar has some value as a conductor of lightning. Therefore, agriculturalists are advised to plant these trees in the vicinity of their farm buildings.

LIFE PLANT

IS RECOGNIZED AS A STANDARD REMEDY FOR

RHEUMATISM

AND ALL BLOOD DISEASES IN 250,000 HOMES IN AMERICA TODAY.

Rheumatism is a very stubborn blood disease. The uric acid poison settles in the muscles and joints and cannot be removed except by purifying the blood. Life Plant drives out the uric acid and prevents its excessive formation. After using Life Plant for rheumatism there is no return of the disease with every change of the weather, as there must be when temporary relief is obtained by use of liniments or other external remedies. At the same time Life Plant builds up every organ and puts it in proper working order. We have cured 97 out of every 100 cases of rheumatism we have treated. Last year we received 10,000 testimonials from rheumatic sufferers cured by Life Plant—the greatest record of any medicine.

O. K. Duck of Leetonia, Ohio, contacted a severe case of rheumatism on October 1, 1902. Knees so badly swollen he had to crawl up and down stairs. Four bottles of Life Plant cured him.

Mr. Duck says:
Leetonia, O., Nov. 25, 1903.
The Life Plant Co.,
Canton, Ohio.

Gentlemen: I write you this as an open letter regarding the true merits which you claim for LIFE PLANT. I was afflicted with Rheumatism about October 1st, 1902, in my knees and arms, which were so badly swollen that I was obliged to crawl up and down stairs and almost unable to do any work. I also suffered a great deal of pain at night. I noticed your advertisement in the newspaper, and a friend also recommended LIFE PLANT to me, and after I had taken four bottles of it I was entirely cured and have not suffered since. I heartily recommend it to any person afflicted with rheumatism.

Yours respectfully,
A. K. DUCK.

M. F. Taylor, of Canton, capitalist and ex-druggist, pronounces the greatest remedy for rheumatism on earth.

Mr. Taylor had rheumatism for a number of years—could not walk a part of the time—suffered all the time, tried everything; all failed till he took LIFE PLANT. Following is Mr. Taylor's emphatic endorsement:

May 25, 1903.
The Life Plant Co., City:

Gentlemen:—I am a druggist by profession, and was in the drug business for a number of years, but am now secretary and treasurer of the Car-nan Stamping and Enameling company, Canton, Ohio.

"I had one of the finest, if not the finest drug stores in western Pennsylvania, and my stock was second to none. My store was located at Leechburg, Pa.

"I was also in the manufacturing business in Canton from 1893 until 1899 when I went back to Leechburg and took charge of the store for two years. While in Canton I contracted rheumatism in my feet. It was so bad at times that I could scarcely walk, would have to crawl on my hands and knees to get around. I took medicines of all kinds, nearly everything that I had in my store, which was about everything that is mentioned in the pharmacopoeia. I even sent to Germany for medicine that was especially recommended for rheumatism. It was so expensive it cost me while taking it, 85 cents a day. I also went to Mt. Clemens and took the full course of baths. Was also at Atlantic City, took the ocean baths and also the hot water baths, but nothing gave me relief. I also sent for nearly everything that I saw advertised to cure rheumatism and gave each a fair trial, but got no relief until a friend mentioned to me about Life Plant. I had taken so many different kinds of medicine that I had no faith in any of them, but to please my friend, I told him to send me three bottles to my house. I commenced taking Life Plant in February last; before I had taken the three bottles, I was almost entirely well, and now at this writing am entirely cured and do not hesitate to say that I really believe that Life Plant is the best medicine for rheumatism that was ever made, as it did for me what nothing else could do.

"Any one that is troubled with rheumatism, I would be pleased to have them write me, and I will give them all the references they would want, as I can refer them to hundreds of people who know me and know also how I have suffered in the last four years, and am now perfectly well, and it was Life Plant that cured me. Very truly,
MILLARD F. TAYLOR.

We have hundreds of testimonials just as strong and convincing as the preceding, and continue to receive them every day.

Life Plant is also an excellent tonic and blood purifier and is a splendid medicine for building up a run down system.

One thing may be confidently said—There will be nothing finer heard in Newark this year. The only other man that ranks with Flowers in the art of impersonation is Leland T. Powers. There is difference of opinion as to which stands first.

All lovers of art and literature should hear Flowers in Hamlet tonight. Admission 50 cents.

TOMORROW NIGHT.

In "The Beauty Doctor," the newest of the big musical plays which Fred E. Wright will present at the Auditorium tomorrow night, January 8, a special feature is made of the scenic and lighting effects. Herr Von Palm, the famous designer of La Voie Fuller's Parisian Fire Dances, has planned some wonderful electrical effects for the big dancing numbers in "The Beauty Doctor." These effects are so elaborate as to require a special equipment of electrical apparatus and a corps of experienced electricians, who are carried with the company. The first act of "The Beauty Doctor" represents a scene at the seashore, and during the entire act the illusion of dashing and rolling waves and moving clouds is preserved by means of new electrical devices used this season in "The Beauty Doctor" for the first time. This is done, too, on a fully lighted stage, and the water and cloud effects are said to be startlingly natural. In the big dancing ensembles which Herr Von Palm has put on the effects are also heightened by the novel use of calciums and other electrical devices, and in the "Culture Drill" he has prepared a big surprise in the way of an unique dance number. The company numbers 60 people, including a battery of stunning "show girls" and a chorus whose voices are said to be of operatic quality. Henrietta Lee, the famous character comedienne, heads the cast the uproariously funny "Beauty Doctor," and is supported by a corps of well-known comedians and singers.

SATURDAY NIGHT.

"Just Struck Town," a play as old as its title, will be presented at the Auditorium Saturday night, January 6. From the moment Hulda Gundersen, the Swede girl, strikes town in the first act, until she finally accepts the Marshall, the Benson, as her prospective husband, the audience is kept in a continual uproar of laughter. Aside from the clever comedy situations, there is a vein of pathos throughout the play which is intended to reach the heart of every auditor.

The Wilbur Mack company will begin a week's engagement here next Monday at popular prices.

Dislocated Her Shoulder.
Mrs. Johanna Soderholm of Fergus Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep which she had not done for several days. The son was so much pleased with the relief it gave his mother that he has since recommended it to many others. For sale by all druggists.

OBSERVED ANNIVERSARY OF THE ORDER'S BIRTH.

Fine Program Carried Out in Cedar Camp's New Quarters in the Fulton Block.

Wednesday night was an important occasion in the history of Cedar Camp No. 4727, Modern Woodmen of this city. The occasion marked a double event of great importance to the camp, viz.: the twenty-first anniversary of the organization of the order of Woodmen, and also the dedication of the new quarters of Cedar Camp in this city.

The important anniversary was fittingly celebrated by a grand opening meeting in Cedar Camp's beautiful and commodious quarters in the Fulton block, (the old Jones opera house), on West Main street.

A special program of music and oratory had been prepared for the occasion, and the wives, sisters and sweethearts of the Woodmen had been invited to join in celebrating the anniversary. The large hall, which seats seven or eight hundred people, was filled at an early hour in the evening and Venerable Counsel O. B. Young presided gracefully over the meeting.

The program consisted of some choice vocal music, duets, quartets etc. by members of Cedar Camp, the fine singing of the quartet being especially appreciated.

A gentleman by the name of Smith furnished some funny business for the occasion, consisting of imitations of various sounds and laughable musical extravaganzas.

Mr. B. F. McDonald, the attorney, delivered a fine address on Woodcraft, pertaining more especially to the local history of Cedar Camp. The address was beautiful in thought and diction, and was delivered very impressively, proving an oratorical gem, and fully sustaining Mr. McDonald's reputation as an orator.

Mr. Edward L. Young, of Norwalk, O., who is prominent in Woodmen and Maccabee circles, delivered a splendid address on "Fraternal Societies" directing his attention of course, principally to the order of Woodmen which he declared to be the largest and most successful organization of the kind in the world.

Mr. Young was quite eloquent in his remarks, especially when he spoke of the fraternal features of such organizations as the Woodmen, and emphasized the fact of the interdependence of each man upon every other man in modern civilization, showing that we are all working for each other, consciously or unconsciously, and that no man liveth unto himself. The effort was a rare oratorical one and Newark people will be glad to hear Mr. Young again.

The growth of Cedar Camp and of the order in general, has indeed been marvelous. Cedar Camp was organized in Newark less than seven years ago, with a charter membership of fifteen. The new organization had but a feeble existence at first, but after a time it began to grow rapidly and now has a membership of over 900, and is still growing.

The order of Modern Woodmen was founded 21 years ago with one camp, and a charter membership of about a dozen persons. The growth of the order in the past 21 years has been simply marvelous. The one camp has been multiplied into 12,000 extending from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The charter membership of 12 persons has been increased to a membership of three quarters of a million.

The order is now carrying an insurance of about one billion and a half dollars, and during its history of 21 years, it has paid in insurance to the members and widows and orphans of the order about $3,000,000. What a wonderful history. Yet the future of the order promises to be even greater than in the past.

TO KEEP THE NEWARK OFFICE OPEN ALL NIGHT.

Receipts of Postoffice for Quarter Ending December 31 Shows Increase of Nearly 19 Per Cent

The receipts of the Newark Postoffice for the quarter ending December 31, were $9,215.70, as against $7,757.21 for the same quarter last year, showing a gain in the receipts of the office for the period of 18 and 8-10 per cent.

The register business for the six months ending December 31, shows that 2565 registered letters and packages were handled as against 1640 for the same period in 1902, which shows a gain of 58 per cent in the Newark Postoffice.

The money order business shows that 7532 domestic orders were issued for the six months ending December 31, on which fees amounting to $419.49 were collected, as against 6891 orders issued during the same period in 1902, and fees collected for the same time of $279.82.

International money orders issued by the Newark office for the six months ending December 31, were 221, on which fees were collected amounting to $63.50, while the same months last year only 59 international orders were issued and $17.10 in fees collected for the same.

Postmaster Ickes is now endeavoring to get an additional clerk in order that the Newark office may be made an all night office, which cannot be done with the present clerical force. If this is done the business people of the city and the traveling public will have access to the lobby at all hours.

INFANTS

In the Eyes of the Law are Parties to Divorce Proceedings Instituted in Northern Ohio.

Findlay, O., Jan. 7.—Mere children are the parties to an interesting divorce case here. The plaintiff is Edna M. Spittler, the 16-year-old daughter of Dr. Ellis Hall, of Van Buren, O. The defendant is Harry L. Spittler, aged 17.

The suit was brought by Dr. Hall, as his daughter is too young to sue in her own name. Judge Duncan, of the Court of Common Pleas, has appointed a guardian pendente lite for the young husband in order that he may defend himself.

Through Lewis O. Poe, the guardian appointed for Spittler, the youthful husband, has filed his answer to his infant wife's petition. He avers that he was frightened into marrying by his wife's father, who gave him $50 and ordered him to marry his daughter and never to return to Van Buren until this command was obeyed. Being refused a license in Findlay he went to Monroe, Michigan, accompanied by Miss Hall, and was married, he says.

Spittler further says that it was in the distraction following the death of his father that he consented to marry. The late Samuel Spittler, the youthful husband's father, was one of the wealthiest farmers in Hancock county, and Spittler will come into a large estate when he attains his majority.

INAUGURATION

Committee on Decoration Has Already Begun Work—Getting Ready for Ceremony Next Monday.

Columbus, O., Jan. 7.—The committee on decorations have already begun their work in the state house preparatory to transforming the rotunda into a bower of beauty for the inauguration of Governor-elect Herrick on January 11, for it is in this part of the capitol that he will take his oath of office. The stately old structure will look grander than ever, both in the interior and on the exterior. No pains will be spared in point of elegance.

The ceremonies to be held in the Capitol are really the most important of the inaugural exercises. It is here that Governor Nash will make his farewell address after a period covering two terms. Again Governor-elect Herrick will solemnly swear to support the constitution of the state, and will tell his hearers what they may expect from him in the years to come. On the day of the inauguration of a regular session of both houses of the Legislature will be held, and each branch will appoint a committee to notify the governor-elect that everything is in readiness for his induction into office. As they proceed to his private quarters, there will be booming of cannon, which continues as he hears the state house, where he will be received by the state officials in the rotunda. The oath of office will be administered by Chief Justice Burket of the supreme court, or one of his associates.

The decorations in this section of the Capitol will far surpass any similar work that has ever been attempted. From the top of the great dome to each side of the four entrances will be festooned great strings of evergreens entwined with cut-flowers, amounting in all to 1,200 yards. There will be an unlimited length of American colors, caught up at convenient places with groups of American flags. All around the marble radius floor will be placed huge palms and other potted plants, while every nook and corner will contain plants of some description. The whole will rival the most select floral conservatory in the country.

At the conclusion of the exercises, Governor Herrick, with former governors, will be escorted to the reviewing stand to witness another grand feature in connection with the inauguration, a parade which will be at least five miles in length.

INAUGURAL

Parade Next Monday at Columbus—Col. Ammel of Fourth Regiment Issues His Orders.

Columbus, O., Jan. 7.—Preparations for the inaugural parade are being rapidly completed. Col. Ammel of the Fourth regiment has issued an order for all companies of the regiment arriving before 10 a. m. Monday, shall rendezvous at the Town street armory, and march at 10 o'clock to the Auditorium. All companies arriving later will march there directly. Dinner will be served in the Auditorium. The Fourth regiment will form for the parade at 12:30 at Front and Goodale streets.

General John C. Speaks, in command of the provisional division, expects from 2500 to 3000 troops to be in line.

The Cleveland engineers with Major McQuigg in command and a band; the naval brigades of Cleveland and Toledo will be here and the Second infantry will send three companies. None so far as is known, will come up from Cincinnati. The Third will send a major and four companies; the Fourth has 31 companies, field, staff, band and hospital corps; the Fifth (Cleveland and vicinity) five companies and a band; the Sixth, one company (Ottawa); the Seventh, five companies; the Eighth, two (see far); the Ninth battalion, four, with field, staff and band.

Battery H of Columbus, under Captain Bush, will turn out mounted, and troops A of Cleveland and B of Columbus will also turn out mounted. This will make 44 companies in all.

The Eighth regiment, while here, will choose a successor to Major Critchfield. Captain Stanford M. Swartz, company K, of Alliance, is the ranking captain.

Nottingham, a city of 250,000, has opened its street railway for two years, and at the rate of 2 cents a mile made a profit of 11 per cent per annum on the capital invested.

WRIGHT BROS.

MAKE STATEMENT ABOUT THEIR FLYING MACHINE.

New Principles of Control Still a Secret—Aerial Navigation Seems Solved—Starts from Ground.

Dayton, O., Jan. 7.—The following statement has been prepared and given out by the Wright Brothers, the inventors of the flying machine which has attracted such widespread attention. The statement covers the two successful trials made by them.

"On the morning of December 17 between 10:30 and noon, four flights were made, two by Orville Wright and two by Wilbur Wright. The starts were all made from a point on the levee, and about 200 feet west of our camp, north of the Kill Devil sandhill in Dare county, North Carolina. The wind at the time of the flights had a velocity of 27 miles an hour at 10 o'clock, and 24 miles an hour at noon as recorded by the anemometer at the Kitty Hawk weather bureau station. This anemometer is 30 feet from the ground. Our own measurements, made with a hand anemometer at a height of four feet from the ground, showed a velocity of about 22 miles when the first flight was made and 20 1/2 miles at the time of the last one. The flights were directly against the wind.

"Each time the machine started from the level ground, by its own power alone with no assistance from gravity or any other source whatever. After a run of about 40 feet along a monorail track which held the machine eight inches from the ground, it rose from the track, and under the direction of the operator, climbed upward on an inclined course till a height of 8 to 10 feet from the ground was reached, after which the course was kept as near horizontal as the wind gusts and the limited skill of the operator would permit.

"Into the teeth of a December gale the 'flier' made its way with a speed of 10 miles an hour over the ground and 30 to 35 miles an hour through the air. It had previously been decided that for reasons of personal safety these first trials should be made as close to the ground as possible.

"The succeeding flights rapidly increased in length and at the fourth trial, a flight of 59 seconds was made in which the machine flew a little more than a half mile through the air and a distance of 852 feet above the ground. The landing was due to a slight error of judgment on the part of the aviator.

"Only those who are acquainted with practical aeronautics can appreciate the difficulties of attempting the first trials of a flying machine in a 25-mile gale. As winter was already set in we should have postponed our trials to a more favorable season, but for the fact that we were determined before returning home, to know whether the machine had sufficient power to fly, sufficient strength to withstand the shocks of landings, and sufficient capacity of control to make flight safe in boisterous winds as well as in calm air. When these points had been definitely established we at once packed our goods and returned home knowing that the age of the flying machine had come at last.

"From the beginning we have employed entirely new principles of control; and as all the experiments have been conducted at our own expense without assistance from any individual or institution, we do not feel ready at present to give out any pictures or detailed descriptions of the machine."

HARD LUCK

STORY TOLD BY MAN WHOSE ARM WAS BANDAGED.

When Taken to Police Station it was Found the Bandages and Splints Were a "Blind."

A man giving the name of John Watson was arrested Wednesday night by Officer McClure for begging on the streets. He was soliciting money by telling a "hard luck" story about a broken arm, and had one of his arms swathed in bandages to re-enforce his appeal for aid. As a matter of fact his arm was as well as ever and the splints and bandages were a "blind."

These "graffers" are numerous and their simulation of some physical infirmity or deformity is often so ingenious and well carried out that even those who are usually suspicious, are made unwary.

Some of the fellows will hold the fingers rigidly in a position of twisted deformity, and while soliciting aid will elicit sympathy by pouring out a story of congenital misfortune or luckless accident.

It behooves every one to be on his guard for these worthless loafers, and if they become importunate to call an officer.

In police court Thursday morning Watson appeared before Mayor Crilly and the magistrate had one of the officers remove the bandages from his arm. One was tied very tight about the wrist which caused a swelling in the hand, but the bandaged arm was as sound and well as the other.

Mayor Crilly fined the imposter $10 and costs and sent him on the stone pile. He had been in Newark some time ago and was given transportation to Columbus by the township trustees. He was treated differently this time, and he will probably give the city a wide berth in the future.

DISPUTE

AS TO WHICH PERSON DIED AT CHICAGO FIRE FIRST.

May Involve Heirs of Two of the Iroquois Theatre Fire Victims Last Week.

Chicago, Jan. 7.—The possibility of a pretty legal fight is presented in the estate of James M. Taylor, a real estate dealer, who perished with his wife and daughter in the Iroquois theatre fire. He left a will giving one half of an estate of $17,000 to his wife, one eighth to his daughter and one eighth each to three sons by a former marriage. Attorney Ernest Saunders, who has secured letters testamentary for the sons, admitted a possibility of a fight on this ground:

"If Taylor died first then Mrs. Taylor inherited one half of the estate, and the sons, not being her children, have no legal claim to it. They would get the estate of the daughter, their half sister. On the other hand if Mrs. Taylor died first, then the provisions of the will in regard to her would have no effect, and the sons would inherit the entire estate. Mrs. Taylor also had an estate, and in this event that would have been inherited by her husband and daughter, and from them would go to the sons. In the event Taylor died first, Mrs. Taylor's relatives in Cincinnati would get her property and half of the husband's estate."

"In the old English common law," said Judge Cutting, it was held that as between man and woman the presumption was that the man, being physically the stronger, survived. This is not what courts hold. In Illinois the presumption is that deaths in such cases are simultaneous. That will be my ruling unless it can be shown by evidence that one or the other may have survived."

Saved From Terrible Death.

The family of Mrs. M. L. Robbitt of Darlington, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed Bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Frank D. Hall's drug store.

The use of electricity in connection with farm work is being strongly advocated. The idea that the light is deleterious to vegetation is said to be all wrong, and that the contrary holds good.

GORMAN

Assails Republicans for Suppressing Report—An Acrid Debate in the U. S. Senate.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 7.—So hot was the fire of the Democrats of the Senate when the resolution of Mr. Carmack, of Tennessee, calling upon the postmaster general for papers and records of the postal investigation, that the Republicans felt impelled to take an early adjournment to save themselves from serious embarrassment and mortification. The leaders in the attack upon the Republican position were Senators Gorman, Teller and Clay. The Republican majority were very sharply arraigned for opposing a Congressional investigation of the postoffice irregularities and were charged with an effort to whitewash the scandal. So heavy was the Democratic fusillade that Senator Aldrich, one of the Republican leaders, moved an adjournment in order to put an end to the attack.

Mr. Lodge defended the action of the majority while Mr. Gorman stated that information will be supplied to the public by the press.

Womanly Health, Strength and Beauty

Strength and beauty in woman depend entirely upon her health. A woman cannot look her best if suffering from one or more of the many ailments peculiar to her sex. The ailments invariably cause, sooner or later, the loss of her symmetry of form and freshness of complexion.

AUNT DINAH'S OLD VIRGINIA

Herb Tea

Makes Strong and Beautiful Women.

It is a most pleasant and effective remedy for the troubles which cause so much suffering among women the world over. It relieves immediately and eventually cures all cases of disordered menstruation, female weakness, proflapsus, chronic constipation, sick head, nervousness, and sleeplessness. These are the ailments which deprive a woman of her youth and beauty and make her old before her time. The use of the Herb Tea will enable her to retain these qualities. It clears the complexion and improves the form. A cupful at bed time will give a woman health and strength.

Chicago, April 19, 1905.

Hamlin W. and O. Co., Chicago, Ill. Gentlemen—My wife has been suffering with female weakness and extreme nervousness which latter the physician who has been attending her for a long time attributed to her being unable to sleep. After taking about eight bottles of your tea she is now able to do so. She is feeling better and is able to do her usual work. She is feeling better and is able to do her usual work. ## FATHER ROBBED HER

Chicago, Jan. 7.—Robbed of nearly $150,000, as it is alleged Clara Irene Laing of Chicago, has been induced to go to Toledo, Ohio, and to sign a document releasing her father from all responsibility for his acts as a guardian. Former Governor John Hamilton has produced evidence to this effect in the probate court where, as Miss Laing's attorney he had begun suit to secure an accounting from her father. The guardian is alleged to have kept his daughter in ignorance of the fact that she was heir to $150,000. She accidentally discovered the facts a few weeks ago, when 27 years old, but the fortune is declared to have disappeared. Attorney Hamilton declared in court that he had just received a letter from a Toledo law firm informing him that he was no longer Miss Laing's counsel. The woman since has repudiated the document given to her father, according to Attorney Hamilton. The case was continued until next Friday.

Costly Carelessness.

Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 7.—Responsibility for the almost complete ruin of Iowa's magnificent $3,000,000 capitol building may rest upon a laborer. Governor Cummins and Senator Funk, Chairman of the Capitol Commission, who are conducting an inquiry looking into the origin of the flames, have developed strong evidence tending to show that a lighted match used for a pipe or cigarette and thrown carelessly into a corner caused the conflagration. Arrests may follow.

Emigrants have been leaving New York for the last week to such an extent as almost to balance the number of immigrants that are daily dumped into the city from the European steamers.

Open Air Cure.

Meridian, Conn., Jan. 7.—Mrs. Geo. A. Allworth, aged 40 years, and Miss Alice L. Flint, aged 24, who have been taking the outdoor treatment for consumption since last summer, slept on their verandas this week while the thermometer stood from 25 to 35 below zero. Their coverings, aside from their night clothes were two woolen blankets and a quilt.

Both women were in the last stages of tuberculosis when then began the outdoor treatment and their cases had been pronounced hopeless. Today they are practically cured, according to physicians who have closely followed the cases.

DEATH CAME

WITHIN TWO HOURS AFTER HE BECAME BLIND.

S. M. Corn of Frazeyburg, Died in the West—Fear of Blindness Proved Fatal.

With the terrible prospects of becoming totally blind and with this prospect weighing upon his mind, S. Meredith Corn, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Corn of Frazeyburg, died at Spokane, Wash., last Saturday. His remains were interred Tuesday at Spokane.

The sad intelligence came in a message from the young man's parents to Mr. J. R. Downs, of Zanesville, who was an intimate friend of the deceased, they having spent their boyhood days together in Frazeyburg. He went west five years ago.

The message stated that death was immediately due to heart disease. This, however, was superinduced by the terrible thought and perhaps worry over the prospect of losing his sight. When a boy at Frazeyburg he was the victim of an accident which cost him the sight of one eye. This impaired the sight of the other eye somewhat. He used glasses to aid him and about a year ago while filling a position in a railroad office, received an injury to his remaining eye from a broken lens of his glasses.

No hope could be given him and he realized that he soon would be deprived entirely of his sight. Ambitious and energetic and being in the brightest period of his life—he was about 29 years old—this realization came as a terrible blow to him. He brooded over it and being of a nervous temperament it affected his health. Gradually his sight waned and on last Saturday the overwhelming blow which had been impending fell and he succumbed. Two hours before death came total blindness seized him.

He was born and reared at Frazeyburg, where his sorrowing parents now reside.
